UNTITLED

(In Czech with English surtitles)

Divadlo 6-16: Prague

Written and performed by Milena Steinmasslová
Directed by Filip Nuckolls

Friday 6th July | 6.30pm

Saturday 7th July | 6.45pm

Two people seemingly without a future spend a few magical moments together.

A performance of poetry and movement presented with a minimum of words, yet full of acrobatic etudes. A story of isolation and the fear of loneliness, full of hope, desire and humour.

Untitled is a world premiere performance for two actors and one musician featuring famous Czech actress Milena Steinmasslová.

ANTIGONE: NOW

Acting Now

Friday 6th July | 5.00pm and 9.35pm

Presented by social theatre company Acting Now, this powerful, physical and contemporary adaptation of Sophocles' play tells the tale of a young heroine who goes against society to honour the death of her brother. A story for now.

SILENT

Fishamble: The New Play Company

Written and performed by Pat Kinevane
Directed by Jim Culleton

Friday 6th July | 8.00pm

"Hopeless, helpless, in-the-way person"

Homeless McGoldrig has lost it all - including his mind. Dare to laugh at despair and gasp at redemption in this brave, bleak, beautiful production for which Fishamble: The New Play Company and Pat Kinevane won an Olivier Award.

WINNER: Olivier Award 2016

WINNER: Fringe First and Herald Angel

'unflinching, intensely physical performance... bristling with black humour' * The Scotsman

MUMS: IN THE MAKING

Saturday 7th July | 12.15pm

Mums: In The Making is a Menagerie backed community theatre piece by The Abbey Mums Drama Group. Here, they present an original patchwork of scenes which echo the unpredictable journey of motherhood...

THE MUSEUM OF MAPS: TALES FROM BEYOND THE CITY

Saturday 7th July | 2.25pm

Meet the map-makers and explorers who have excavated little-known parts of Cambridge! A performance devised, hosted and performed by ACTIVATE students from Coleridge Community College.

BLISS

A READING AND SCRIPT DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP

by Fraser Grace

Saturday 7th July | 5.05pm

BLISS is an open workshop on a new play by one of Menagerie's Associate Writers, Fraser Grace (Breakfast with Mugabe and Always Orange for the RSC, and for Menagerie: Gifts of War, Frobisher's Gold and Tongues).

Based on a gorgeous short story by the Russian writer Andrey Platonov (1899-1951), the new play (working title: BLISS) is both a love story and a tale of souls bruised perhaps beyond repair.

SLEEPER

A STAGED READING OF A WORK IN PROGRESS

by Janice Okoh

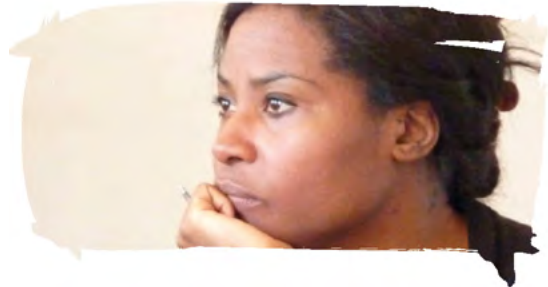

Saturday 7th July | 1pm

Award-winning, Menagerie Associate Writer and Channel Four Writer in Residence 2018, Janice Okoh (Egusi Soup), presents the first draft of her new play Sleeper as a staged reading.

Three people. Three dreams. One nightmare.

A comic drama about love, life and surrogacy.

Draft One. Month One...

UNDERNEATH

Fishamble: The New Play Company

Written and performed by Pat Kinevane
Directed by Jim Culleton

Saturday 7th July | 8.15pm

This stunning solo play is a blackly comic, rich and vivid tale of a life lived in secret, a testament to the people who live on the fringes, under the nose of everyday life. www.fishamble.com

WINNER: Adelaide Fringe Best Theatre Award

WINNER: The Scotsman Fringe First Award

WINNER: Best Solo Performance, LA Stage Raw Awards

'EXTRAORDINARY... sit back and enjoy.' New York Times

'BRILLIANT... striking...excellent...a masterpiece' * Irish Times
